Materials for which Seller is reimbursed shall become the property of Buyer and be surrendered to it upon Buyer's request. Seller shall safeguard and shall not destroy such materials without Buyer's consent.
- 9. DELAYS. If Seller fails or refuses to proceed with this Order, or if Seller fails to make delivery, or Buyer refuses to accept delivery in accordance with the delivery schedule, the other party may cancel the then remaining balance of this Order unless the delay is an “excusable delay” as hereinafter defined. An “excusable delay” shall not constitute a default under this Order. The term “excusable delay” as used in this section means any delay in making or accepting deliveries which results without fault or negligence on the part of the party involved and which is due to causes beyond its control including, without limitation, acts of God or of the public enemy, any preference, priority or allocation order issued by Government or any other act of Government, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, freight embargoes, unusually severe weather, and delays of a party’s supplier due to such causes. For greater certainty, “excusable delay” does not include any strike, lock-out, labor dispute or inability to obtain labor, utilities, services or raw materials. Each party shall promptly notify the other of any such delay and the cause thereof.

10. INSPECTION AND ACCEPTANCE. Buyer, at its option, may inspect and/or test the Goods at Seller’s plant, off site, and/or the point of destination. Buyer shall have the right to monitor Seller’s inspection, quality and reliability procedures and review the data supporting same. Acceptance of the Goods by Buyer shall not relieve Seller from any of its obligations and warranties hereunder. In no event shall payment or transfer of title constitute acceptance of the Goods.

11. QUALITY AND WARRANTY. Seller expressly warrants that all Goods covered by this Order will conform to the standards, specifications, drawings, samples, models, 3-D geometry or other description furnished or expressly adopted by Buyer, and will be of good material and workmanship, and free from defects, including defect in design (if Seller’s design) and, if custom-designed by Seller for the application specified by Buyer, be comparable in quality to similar custom-designed goods sold for similar applications, and if the Goods are not ordered to Buyer’s specifications, Seller further warrants that they will be of merchantable quality and fit and sufficient for the purpose intended. Seller further warrants that all Goods covered by this Order, including but not limited to components and material furnished for or incorporated into the Goods, including Goods intended for distribution as service parts, will comply with all applicable Federal, State, Provincial and local statutes, laws, regulations, orders, and ordinances, including, without limitation, all environmental and occupational health and safety laws and industry standards and Buyer’s specifications that restrict or prohibit certain chemical compounds as constituents of Goods as specified in the John Deere Restricted Materials List. If Seller fails to do so, Buyer may cancel this Order as to all such Goods, and in addition, may cancel the then remaining balance of this Order. After notice to Seller, all such Goods will be held at Seller’s risk. Buyer may, and at Seller’s direction shall, return such Goods to Seller at Seller’s risk, and all transportation charges, both to and from the original destination, shall be paid by Seller. Any payment for such Goods shall be refunded by Seller unless Seller promptly corrects or replaces the same at its expense. If any field problem occurs as a result of a Nonconformity in the Goods and is sufficiently serious and widespread to threaten Buyer’s marketing of its end product or Buyer’s reputation, or poses a previously unforeseen safety hazard or causes any governmental agency, including, without limitation, a governmental consumer product safety agency or the United States Consumer Products Safety Commission, to require a change in Buyer’s end product, such that a recall or Product Improvement Program (a “PIP”) is a reasonable corrective action, Seller shall pay forthwith to Buyer all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by Buyer in taking such corrective action. If the corrective action is necessary in part because of a Nonconformity in the Goods provided, and in part because of an act or omission of Buyer, said costs and expenses shall be allocated between the parties pro rata according to their respective percentage of fault.

13. MANUFACTURING CHANGES. Seller shall give Buyer not less than sixty (60) days prior, written notice of any specification, design, part number or other identification changes, or any major changes in process or procedure or changes in the location of the manufacturing plant or place where Seller performs any of its obligations under this Order if any such changes may affect the Goods.

If the use or sale of any Goods furnished hereunder is enjoined as a result of such suit, Seller, at its option and at no expense to Buyer, shall obtain for the party to be indemnified (including Buyer's customers, if applicable) the right to use and/or sell the Goods or substitute acceptable equivalent Goods and extend this indemnity thereto;
- b) Seller's negligence, strict liability or other claim involving the design, manufacture, material and/or workmanship of the Goods or the warnings or lack thereof;

- d) Seller's possession, use, repair or maintenance of the Property under Section 17.

15. INDEMNIFICATION PROCEDURE. Failure of Buyer to discover and/or remedy the act(s) or omission(s) in Section 14 shall not excuse Seller from this obligation. Buyer shall promptly notify Seller in writing of the Loss. Buyer shall cooperate in, but not be responsible for the investigation and defense of the action in respect of the Loss or for any costs and expenses associated therewith. Should Seller fail to assume its obligation hereunder, Buyer shall have the right, but not the obligation, to defend itself and to thereafter require Seller to reimburse and indemnify Buyer for any and all costs and expenses, including legal fees, paid by Buyer in connection therewith.
